(五) 次の英文を読んで、1~7 の問いに答えなさい。

When Mariko was an elementary schoolchild, she often went to cheer for her mother with her father. Mariko's mother was in a mothers' volleyball club and enjoyed playing volleyball with her friends. One day, she said to Mariko, "Volleyball is a lot of fun. (A) " "I will do so when I become a junior high school student," answered Mariko. Her mother said, "I want to play volleyball with you some day."

A few months later, Mariko became a first-year student and joined the volleyball club. For several months, Mariko had to practice very hard every day. Volleyball was not fun. She thought many times that she wanted to quit. But one day, she played in a game for the first time. After the game, she thought, "I enjoyed playing it. But I was sad because I couldn't win the game. (B) I want to win the next game."

The Athens Olympics were held when Mariko was a second-year student. She and her teammates watched volleyball games on TV with their volleyball coach, Ms. Wada. Those games were very exciting. After the games, Ms. Wada said, "I think the players really wanted to win the game in the Athens Olympics. They practiced very hard and achieved (C) their goal. I think they were really happy. I want you to have your goal and keep trying to achieve it, too." After the Athens Olympics, Mariko and her teammates practiced harder for their last game. Their goal was to win the game. They did everything to achieve it.

The day of their last game came. Her parents came to cheer for her team. But the team couldn't win the game. Mariko and her teammates became (D) and started to cry. Ms. Wada said, "Don't cry. You did all the things you could do. Be proud of yourself, everyone." When Mariko came home, she went to her room. She didn't want to talk to anyone. Her mother came to her room, but Mariko didn't want to see her.

The next morning, her mother said, "Mariko, I want to talk to you. When I was a junior high school student, I couldn't win my last game. (E) Volleyball is fun, isn't it?" Mariko said to her mother, "The volleyball practice was very hard. But I really enjoyed playing volleyball with my teammates. They are my good friends. I will remember many things I learned in the club with them. (F) I think you are right. I want to keep playing volleyball like you."
